COMPLAINT

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

NOW COME Plaintiff C. Joe Schroeder & prays Honorable Court & Honorable Justice exclude the Plaintiff from the class & allow Plaintiff to file own filing verse the unlawful behavior of Google in reference to privacy via incognito mode of its service offered in chrome & other browsers. Wherefore the Plaintiff has cause with merit the following,

1. The Plaintiff is a class action member having used Google browsing service with private mode & incognito mode during the specified period of June 2016 till filing of class action lawsuit.
2. The data collection practices are contrary to the "ruse" promise of Google's private browsing option. They collect data when they indicate, & in fact, promise they won't do that. A deceptive practice. Internet security equals financial security & Google is determining who is vulnerable & who could be taken advantage of in a financial manner.

3. Google data collection practices are disturbing & Plaintiff seeks to file civil suit on Plaintiffs' own in Plaintiffs' own

2. Plaintiff currently believes a figure of $135,000.00 is a total that is accurate. Yet, Plaintiff believes that a proper & complete discovery could & should reveal a very significant additional figure. A figure without limit.
3. The Plaintiff seeks a protection order from possible & potential retaliation of defendants as well as the prevention of purging of any information or data that (present/past) the defendant has collected in reference to the Plaintiff & others of similar standing.
